The Pandaw Charity

The Pandaw Charity is a way to give something back to Burma and a way by which our passengers can say “thank you to Burma” for so many enriching experiences

- Founded in 2008 in response to Cyclone Nargis where Pandaw ships converted into hospitals saving 1,000s of lives
- Raised money to build 12 schools on remote river islands and villages too distant from towns to send children to school
- Built three primary schools and one high school in the Irrawaddy, south of Pagan, bringing complete education to the island’s children
- Operate 7 clinics in middle Burma providing 5,000 free treatments a month with 20 full time medics. A new clinic is under construction at the moment and scheduled for completion
