

Deluxe Cruises in CROATIA

Our ExpairTours Cruises

Discover the most beautiful places of the Croatian coast on board of our charming boats.

The best way to discover most of what the Adriatic coast has to offer is to travel from island to island, every stopover having its own highlight; small isolated ports, spotless creeks, finding yourselves in the heart of Croatian towns most of which are classified in the UNESCO world heritage and moreover, drop the anchor for the night.

Our boats offer personalised service with a welcoming crew, always open to your every needs. Well-equipped and comfortable cabins, excellent food in a cosy atmosphere. The size of our boats allow each passenger to have some intimacy while it also creates a cosy and family-like environment.

The homely atmosphere is amplified by the crew. In fact, the captain and the crew members all come from sailor families who respect, know and love the sea. They will do everything to share their love for the country and its sea with you. The boats are separated into 3 groups: Deluxe, Luxury and Superior. The fleet is made up of recently built boats to guarantee an unforgettable journey across the Adriatic Islands.

CRUISES : LIFE ON BOARD

Range of boats

Although all boats are built recently, they are divided into 3 groups: Deluxe, Luxury and Superior. Based on the level of comfort, amenities and extras such as drinks and service.

Cabin types

The cabins are usually divided into decks: inferior deck, main deck and/or superior deck. Inferior deck; its cabins are slightly cheaper with two portholes and air conditioning. Most of the inferior deck cabins are also the largest, the coolest and calmest. They are accessed by a staircase from the main deck. Main deck cabins are usually equipped with a window and a porthole in the bathroom, their access is easy (and they have a beautiful view). All cabins have double beds or twin beds, a private bathroom with a shower and toilet. Some cabins have an extra bed. Wi-Fi is available in the shared areas of the boat.

On a daily basis

The boats usually leave the port in the morning during breakfast. Depending on the weather forecast the first swim stop usually takes place before lunch and the second, in the afternoon, before arriving at destination. When arriving, passengers may take part in the town tour given by a local tour guide. Evenings are activity free and allow everyone to taste some local restaurant and food. The boats are usually anchored in ports very close to the city.

Meals on board

The cruise is a half-board formula: Breakfast served as a buffet and lunch is freshly cooked and served in a 3 dish menu. The food on board is a mix of international as well as Mediterranean and Croatian food. Our chef will do his best to respect each and everyone's diets, if it was mentioned in the booking. We encourage our clients to stroll through the city at night and taste the local food. The cruise directors are always open to questions and can suggest you good restaurants.

Drinks

Drinks (1/4 wine, 1/2 water and coffee) are included in the meals on most of our ships. A bar is available and serves beer, wine, spirits and soft drinks. All drinks bought on board can be paid cash at the end of the stay. Drinks bought on mainland are not allowed on the ships.

Excursions

Croatia is a beautiful country with lovely cities classified in the UNESCO heritage list, unique islands, each with their own personality and history. Although a city tour with a local guide is included in the price, some optional activities don't have free entry, giving clients the opportunity to discover some places at their own pace. We suggest you check the included/non included section of each cruise.

Dress code

The dress code during the entire journey is relaxed and comfortable. Make sure you pack a jumper for October and May, which may sometimes be a little cooler. As for the Summer, we suggest you take sun cream and sunglasses. We highly recommend a pair of hiking shoes to explore islands towns and National Parks.

Nationalities on board

The boats have a capacity of 36 up to 40 people. Most from Belgium but also from the UK, Australia, Canada etc... Families, couples, children and seniors are welcome. The Young and Fun cruises offer more nightlife to our younger clients.

Languages on board

Generally speaking, English is used on board but some cruise directors speak Dutch and French as well. For more information on the language spoken on your cruise, feel free to contact us.

Limited mobility

All sorts of clients are welcome on board but a warning to the ones with limited mobility. The crew will do their best to help you get on board, but it is important to know that most of the boats berth one next to another, clients sometimes have to pass several boats to get to theirs, and platforms are put in place between each boat. We encourage you to contact our team while booking.

Private Boats

A boat can be privatized from a group of 30 people on. Several themed cruises can be offered; one way cruises, gay, bike, cultural ...

Don't hesitate to send us your request, our team will be happy answer in the shortest delay

Chic cruise departure from SPLIT North Coast

8 days / 7 nights
from Split to Split departure on Saturday

Day 1: Split

Arrival at airport + transfer to the port (Trogir or Split depending on the week of arrival). Guided tour through Split city (also depending on light schedule). The Dalmatian capital, Split, is Croatia's second biggest city and over 1 700 years old, the ancient part of town is classified in the UNESCO...

The cities historical sites such as The St. Dominus Cathedral are situated in the Diocletian's Palace. Apart from history, Split is considered a cultural centre because of its numerous museums, churches and archaeological sites. Afternoon tour through the town and the Diocletian Palace. Welcoming dinner to introduce the captain and his crew. Overnight stay in Split.

Day 2 : Split > Hvar > Vis

Morning departure to the island of Hvar. Lunch on board and arrival in the afternoon. Hvar is one of Croatia's most famous islands and a meeting point of international jet set society. Our local guides will take you through Hvar to get to know its culture, history and lifestyle.

Departing to the island of Vis with a swimstop along the way (if the weather forecast allows it). Free time in Vis.

The island of Vis is a remote island with interesting locations such as Komiza and Vis, beautiful beaches and Pine forests. The fisher's museum in Komiza displays traditional wooden boats once used for fishing. Free evening and overnight stay in Vis.

Day 3 : Vis > Sibenik

Departing for the island of Bisevo in the morning. Biesovo is 5 nautical miles away from Vis, it's known for its Blue Cave; a natural phenomenon makes it look like the sea is made out of light. Visit of the Blue Cave. Lunch and departure to Sibenik. The route is a little longer than the others but has breath-taking views. Stroll through Sibenik once we arrive. Sibenik firstly mentioned in 1006 is Croatia's oldest town. Sibenik wasn't founded by Romans or Greeks but by Croatians. The most famous building in town is the Saint Jacob cathedral, most important monument of the Renaissance in Croatia. Free evening and overnight stay in Sibenik.

Day 4 : Sibenik > Krka > Vodice > Zadar

From Sibenik we will navigate towards Krka River. We will drop the anchor in Skradin near the famous waterfalls of Krka. Small boats will take us from the port to the National Park, be sure to visit "Skradinski Buk" (the transfer and entry cost around 12-15 euros, paid on spot). Don't forget to bring a swim suit as swimming in the clear.

*Note : depending on sea traffic, the captain may decide to anchor the boat in Vodice, we'll then access the Park by bus.

Day 5 : Zadar > Sali

We will start the day with a visit of Zadar. Our guide will show you around town to visit the main attractions ; the Roman Forum, Sveti Donat church, Sveta Stosija cathedral, the world famous Sea Organ . Lunch on board and Departure for Sali where we'll spend the night. For those who like small fishing village atmospheres, Sali is the place to be. It has only 3 restaurants, 4 stores a hotel, bakery, post office and a municipality; it still is the islands biggest village. Free evening and overnight stay.

Day 6 : Sali > Kornati > Zlarin

Sali is the best starting point to visit Kornati's. Most of the terrain in the Kornati islands is karst-limestone with many cliffs, caves and only a little vegetation, all combined with Croatia's beautiful blue sea, the view is breath-taking. Some rocks are about 160 m high. Several swimstops are planned on the way along with a relaxing day and beautiful landscapes. Lunch and departure for Zlarin where you'll have the evening off and overnight stay.

Day 7 : Zlarin > Trogir

Zlarin Island is situated in Sibenik's archipelago and separated from the continent by a canal. Traditionally islanders dedicate their time to farming, fishing, viticulture and diving. Zlarin has beautiful swim beaches as well as a quite sand beach (cars are not allowed on the island). Around noon, we'll head to Trogir, the last town of our cruise week. Trogir is a small town not far from Split, it is known for its old town centre and its Roman gate at the entry of Saint-Ivan cathedral, and a UNESCO protected attraction. Trogir is partly known for its lively summer night life. Free evening and overnight stay in Trogir.

Day 8 : Trogir
