A-ROSA River Cruises

Think river cruising in Germany, think Rhine, Moselle and Main.

A-ROSA river cruises offer a unique portfolio of itineraries combining these magnificent rivers. Mainly departing from Cologne, guests can choose between 4, 5 and 7-night voyages, covering the rivers' cultural and touristic highlights.

In the UNESCO-listed Upper Middle Rhine Valley, located between the metropolises Frankfurt and Cologne, and protected by Europe's second largest preserved fortress, lies the romantic town of Koblenz, where the Moselle river joins the Rhine.

The Moselle twists and turns in narrow loops through fairy tale like countryside, showcasing lush terraced vineyards, quaint villages with historic half-timbered houses and rolling hills that are dotted with ancient castles and fortresses.

Renowned for its Riesling, the authentic old wine-making town of Rudesheim attracts more than three million visitors a year. Leaving the Rhine, some of A-ROSA's unique itineraries head towards Frankfurt, along the river Main. A truly multifaceted city, Frankfurt is home to one of the oldest and biggest Christmas markets in Germany, dating back to the 14th century. A-ROSA visits this stunning city during the summer months and in winter, offering dedicated Christmas market cruises.

Passing through culturally rich and picturesque towns like Würzburg and Bamberg, A-ROSA's Romantic Main voyages end in Regensburg*, often described as the best-preserved medieval city in Germany.

A-ROSA's contemporary style of river cruising appeals to active travellers of all ages, seeking choice and flexibility in a relaxed setting. Unlimited alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages throughout the day are included in A-ROSA's Premium tariff, as well as full-board, free travel for kids*, no reservation change fee and much more.

For further information on A-ROSA River Cruises and the Premium-All-Inclusive rate, please contact reservations@francistravelmarketing.co.nz

*Or vice versa i.e. commence in Regensburg and end in Cologne.

Up to the age of 15 years and as part of the Premium-All-Inclusive rate and if the child is accompanied by a full fare paying adult and only valid for the cruise portion of the journey. Except Douro sailings, where a 25% child discount applies.
